Wonder Woman

Pay attention, if you will, to the lady "hanging" from the window ledge. This video was shot by a "professional". The woman is dangling for an unnaturally long time. Just as the epically dramatic rescue moment occurs, the camera pans away! The quality of the video is so poor, and the street light is conveniently not functioning. So, any video analysis of this would likely turn up little, if any, further details.

This Is Just Rediculous
